Ridewell Meets 12-Month Safety Goal

Springfield, MO – January 26, 2011 – Ridewell employees met their safety goals for the entire year in 2010, so management fired up the grill to celebrate. They served steaks and baked potatoes to the entire workforce, and awards were presented to employees maintaining accident-free records for 5, 10, 15, or 20 years.

Ridewell takes employee safety very seriously. “We want you to arrive at home each night in the same condition you left that morning,” President John Millsap tells his employees.

Monthly safety meetings are held at Ridewell, and employee suggestions for continuous improvement of the work environment are welcomed and encouraged. At the end of every quarter, if safety goals are met, a celebration dinner is held.

Ridewell manufactures suspensions for the truck, trailer, bus, and RV industries. The company supplies the North American community and many other countries worldwide.
